

Tuck Fellowship Fund – Contribution Form

Ernest O. Tuck died at the age of 69 after a heroic battle with cancer. During his brilliant career he participated in many international conferences and meetings including the IWWWFB, a conference at the heart of his research interests. Before his untimely death, several of Ernie's colleagues and friends decided to establish a traveling fellowship in his honour. After consulting with him to ascertain his preferences, it was decided to award the Tuck Fellowship annually, to students and younger research workers to participate in the IWWWFB. Further details and information are online at <http://www.iwwwfb.org/Tuck.htm>
